DEBATING AND LITERARY COMMITTEE POLICY

Introduction:

Debating and Literary Committee was established at IITM as an initiative to work towards developing and enhancing the speaking and communication skills of the students and to provide opportunities to practice and polish their communication & negotiation skills. The committee focuses on creating a learning environment in which students develop proficiency in all the different forms of communication.

Objectives:

- To sharpen students' literary and debating skills.
- To help students understand and communicate various forms of arguments effectively in different contexts.
- To develop students' ability to analyze current affairs, select and evaluate evidence, and construct arguments or refutations.
- To help students realize their untapped potential and talent.
- To stimulate students to think critically about various serious issues.
- To prepare students to work in a global community by creating awareness about social, political, and moral issues.
- To increase daily awareness and foster positive habits like reading.
- To encourage creative writing and expression through literary events and competitions.
- To enhance public speaking and presentation skills through regular practice and feedback.
